

COMMERCIAL.

Dry goods are tolerably active with more buyers than heretofore during the season. Groceries are firmer with a freer demand. Dried fruits, canned goods and fish are active. Dairy products are dull and heavy. No change is noted in eggs and country produce in general.

GRAIN.

Wheat—Markets in local circles are steady, all grades in fair demand at quotations. Receipts light. Futures in fair request, but offerings of forward deliveries are scarce. No markets at sea-board because of Good Friday.

Corn—While prices for some grades are shaded off slightly, yet inquiries are good and all grades will find ready purchasers at full quotations. Futures dull and not wanted. Chicago 3¢ higher.

Gate—Firm at quotable prices, and we note a good local demand.

The following table shows the receipts of grain at this point for the past twenty-four hours:
